

MEDIA RELEASE

April 1st, 2011

SUMMER IN THE PARK FESTIVAL – WRISTBANDS NOW ON SALE

The Summer in the Park Committee is excited to announce that wristbands are now on sale. Headline musical entertainment will take the stage on Friday July 29th and Saturday July 30th at the North Bay Waterfront. Wristbands cost $20 in advance and $30 at the gate.

“We encourage North Bay residents to purchase their wristbands now to save big” stated Derek Shogren, Chair of Summer in the Park.

“We are excited about what our musical entertainment lineup is shaping up to be” said Sean Lawlor, Program and Entertainment Chair. The musical entertainment lineup should be announced over the next few weeks.

Wristbands can be purchased online at www.capitolcentre.org or at the following locations; Parks, Recreation & Leisure Services Department, City Hall, North Bay & District Chamber of Commerce, North Bay Capitol Centre, Memorial Gardens Arena, The North Bay Transit Terminal, TD Bank – Main Street, TD Bank – North Bay Mall or TD Bank – Laurentian Avenue.

The Lee Park programming will remain free to the public and will include the ever popular inflatable land, the Redpath petting zoo, exotic pet show, children’s performers, Best Western outdoor movie in the park, community groups and food & product vendors. New to Lee Park this year is the Northern Ontario Open Country Singing Contest. The contest will get underway at 10 am on Friday July 29th and wrap up with finals at 6 pm on Sunday July 31st.

The complete Summer in the Park Festival will take place in Lee Park at the North Bay Waterfront Friday July 29th, Saturday July 30th and Sunday July 31st.

For further information please visit www.northbaysummerinthepark.ca or call 474-0626 ext 2329 or 2335.

-30-

For further information please contact:

Derek Shogren
Chair, Summer in the Park
(705) 471-3255

Erin Vaughan
Community Event Facilitator
474-0626 ext 2312